

Martha's Vineyard Film Center
Feldman Family Artspace exhibition application 2015

The Martha's Vineyard Film Center is opening its lobby to display Island artists work. Artist interested in exhibiting their work should submit a letter of intent, a resume/bio and examples of the work you would like to show on paper, slides or on-line by March 1st to:

Paul Brissette
75 North William St
Vineyard Haven, Ma., 02568
e-mail pbrissette705@gmail.com

Submissions will be juried by a committee in mid March.

Selected artists will then be drawn by lottery for specific show dates throughout the year.

The selection committee will draw 12 artist and two alternates for this year.

Work will hang for 3 or 4 weeks depending upon the season. The art will be hung by the artist under the supervision, and with the assistance of a committee member.

Artwork must be framed or presented in a professionally manor in keeping with the high standards of The Film Center.

A reference sheet of titles, price list and artist biography should also be hung with the work. Anyone interest in purchasing a piece will contact and make arrangements with the artist directly. All works should remain up throughout the duration of the show. The Film Society asks for a 15% donation for any works sold.

Red dots will be placed near any works that have been sold over the duration of the show.

The show will be advertised on The Film Center Facebook page and by direct e-mail to members. Any additional mailings or newspaper announcements or a formal opening and/or refreshments are the responsibility of the artist and needs to be coordinated with the management of the Film Society.

We will make every effort to protect all work. The Film Center is a secure building with a burglar alarm and sprinklers. Art is insured up to $10,000 (additional coverage can be made if needed).
