

WELCOME CELEBRATING 18 YEARS!

For the 18th consecutive year, the Martha's Vineyard International Film Festival, the island's annual celebration of world cinema, will take place in the MV Film Center at the Tisbury Marketplace.

Come join us for an array of narrative, documentary, and short films. They demonstrate the power of film, its ability to make us laugh and cry and think deeply. This festival's films promise unforgettable imagery, creative storylines, and unique characters.

The fun kicks off on Tuesday, September 5, with two features: the Swiss film GOLDEN YEARS and SCRAPPER, from the UK. Both films from female directors capture the end-points of life—retirement and young adulthood—with humorous insight.

On Wednesday, September 6, we present a Swedish documentary, THE GULLSPÅNG MIRACLE. Then it's an evening of romantic comedy with the Spanish film RAMONA.

Thursday, September 7, is the official opening night, which means a big party! That evening's ticket includes admission to the tented party at the Tisbury Marketplace from 5:30-7:00 pm. There, festivalgoers may mingle, imbibe bubbly, beer, and wine, and nibble Italian-inspired appetizers while swaying to the sounds of the popular Eric Johnson jazz band. Mad Martha's Ice Cream is back, too, with generous scoops for all. At 7:30 it's off to the MV Film Center, to see the Italian feature THE EIGHT MOUNTAINS.

Films on Friday, September 8, start with a stunningly visual documentary, GODS OF MEXICO, and then shift to the SHORT FILMS JURIED COMPETITON.

On Saturday, September 9, film-lovers get to circle the globe, starting at 1pm in rural China, with RETURN TO DUST, a story of love and endurance. Then it's westward to the Baltics with SMOKE SAUNA SISTERHOOD. The evening ends in the USA with the feature film FINEST-KIND, a crime thriller centered on commercial fishing and set in New Bedford. It stars Jenna Ortega and Oscar-winner Tommy Lee Jones, plus many more stars. Director Brian Helgeland and producer Gary Foster will be on hand for a post-screening Q&A of this exciting, not-yet-released major feature.

On the festival's final day—Sunday, September 10—the excitement ramps up even higher, starting with music-infused drama, CASBLANCA BEATS, from Morocco. Immediately following is the Israeli film ELIK & JIMMY, a love story with echoes of “When Harry Met Sally.”

The closing film is a family drama from Mexico, TOTEM, which won top prizes this year at the Berlin, Hong Kong, Melbourne international film festivals. Post-show, festivalgoers travel into downtown Vineyard Haven to enjoy appetizers and drinks under the stars on the spacious patio of FISH MV, with live Latin music.

Welcome to our small island and the world of film, packed into six very special days.

RETURN TO DUST

Saturday, September 9, 1:00pm

DIRECTED BY: RUIJUN LI

China / 2022 / 131 mins / Drama

Castoffs from their families, Ma and Cao are forced into an arranged marriage, but they come together to build a real home. The director used long takes to paint this portrait of the many challenges of living in rural China, using her native Gaotai county in Gansu province for the setting. The film is unsparing as it captures such things as the demolition of villages and ways of life that are disappearing. She was perhaps too successful—though the film at first proved popular in China, it's now been "tacitly" banned. It's a fate Slant Magazine calls fitting for its unflinching portrait that shows people are "as fragile as the earth they come from." The film was named the best at the Asian Film Festival in Barcelona and it picked up the jury award at the Lisbon and Estoril Film Festival, and was nominated for best film at the Berlin International Film Festival.
